8. [] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING

Met with Lewis Gulik, on the staff of the House International Relations Committee, to brief him on our present Soviet grain estimate.

9. [] LIAISON In response to his request the other day, I called Chairman George H. Mahon (D., Texas) to tell him that we had checked our files and had pulled together the material he had requested on the number and dates on which we had briefed the Special Group on a sensitive covert action program. I told him that there had been five briefings from 1972 through 1974 and five Reserve release letters during the corresponding time-frame. I added that [] who was Chief of the division concerned at the time, was prepared to come up with me to brief the Chairman on the substance of our past reports to the Special Group. Chairman Mahon said it would not be necessary to either provide the information or the report at this time, so long as we had the information available subject to his call. I told him that of course, we were available at his pleasure.

10. [] LIAISON Scott Cohen, on the staff of Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.) called to say that a good friend of his, [] had noted in the recommendations of the Rockefeller Report that the Inspector General staff is to be increased in size and [] was interested in a possible opening on the staff. Cohen said that [] had been the Acting Inspector General for Foreign Assistance in the State Department for some time and has had a lot of experience on the Hill. He is 57 years old and according to Cohen, would be interested in working for another three or four years. I told Cohen that I would check with Dr. Chamberlain or [] and call him back next week.

11. [] LIAISON Received a call from Randall

Teague, in the office of Representative Jack Kemp (R., N.Y.), regarding our prior conversation with respect to [] Teague said that he had been in touch with DOD and they are taking care of the matter.

12. [] LIAISON Received a call from Theodore Ralston, Senate Select Committee, regarding his note of today's date requesting access to certain of our OLC Journals. I told Ralston that we had received his letter and were pulling together the Journal items and would try to get together with him early next week. Ralston said he was interested in looking at these items to see how they fit into a paper he is doing on Agency contacts with the Congress with respect to our budget. He says he hopes to have his material on this subject pulled together by next week.

13. [] ADMINISTRATIVE DELIVERY Delivered to the office of Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, a copy of a TS transcript and memoranda.

14. [] BRIEFING Sat in on a briefing of Gilbert Keyes and Jim Gehrig, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, given by Ernest Zellmer and [] OWL. After the briefing, attended a luncheon for Keyes and Gehrig which Mr. Zellmer and Mr. Cary also attended.

15. [] LIAISON J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called and requested the exact pronunciation of Pomerov, a ~~Soviet~~ official. He asked that the pronunciation be given to him personally by one of our Russian language speaking employees. In calling [] DDO, I learned that his secretary, Pat, speaks Russian and knew the correct pronunciation of Pomerov. She offered to call Sourwine.

16. [] LEGISLATION Called Hilda Schreiber, OMB, to let her know that we were inserting an additional paragraph in the transmittal letters in our legislative package to eliminate the one percent bonus from cost-of-living increases under the CIARDS system. She expressed no objection to the idea.
